Concerted Music
For the Guitar.

The increasing interest now being shown to the Guitar at Concerts and social gatherings, has created a demand for choice INSTRUMENTAL music, and I have prepared this List of QUARTETTES, TRIOS, and DUETS, by request of Guitarists in every part of the country.

Trusting that it will supply a long felt want, I submit the following:

QUARTETTES.

QUINTETTE FROM MARTHA 50
One of the best melodies written.

TRIOS

LA VERGINELLA 35
A charming Italian air, not very difficult.
STANCO DI PASCOLAR 35
A little more work in this, but it is well worth it.
TRIO IN DON GIOVANNI. Mozart's master-piece . . . 35

19. PRAYER, FROM A NIGHT IN GRENADA.
20. PRAYER, IN CHILD OF THE REGIMENT

YOUR ATTENTION

Is called to the following list of Duets and Trios for Flute, or Violin, and Guitar.

They are arranged so as to give the best effects, and at the same time be within the compass of average performers.

Everyone who has played in concert with others, will know of the pleasure derived from playing music where the different parts are independent, and yet move together in intervals, not as an air and chords, but each instrument taking a part, blending their tones with a charming effect.

The Guitar makes the best accompaniment for the Flute or Violin that can be imagined, it gives the other instruments a chance, and its own beautiful tone stands out full and harmonious.

The Frolic at the Husking.

A Musical Sketch.

By W. L. Hayden.

This is one of the jolliest pieces ever written, and it will be very popular.

You can almost see the merry lads and lassies joining in the dance after the work is over, and one that has taken a part in, or read about a husking party, will enter into the spirit of this piece at once.

Hayden's

Modern School for the Guitar

COMPLETE INSTRUCTIONS FOR THIS CHARMING INSTRUMENT.

Mr. Hayden has been as careful to make this book as thorough every way, as he would have been with a larger book; every detail is fully entered into, there is nothing left to be guessed at, but it follows a settled plan.

Music is explained in a comprehensive manner, from the first rudiments to the finishing studies. Scales and Chords are given in each favorite key.

Examples of accompaniments in each key, the fingering carefully marked.

The pieces for studies are progressively arranged melodies, pleasing to the pupil, and being bright and cheerful, are pieces that one would play for pleasure after using them as studies.

There is a large collection of music in the last part; Beautiful Songs and Instrumental pieces. Gems from Boccaccio, Olivette, Mascotte, Pirates of Penzance. etc. Many of which can be procured only in this book.

Price 75 cts.

Sent Post-paid, on receipt of price. Stamps taken.
